Let's Play at Home

Words To Encourage Movement

Sometimes young children need a suggestion from you to get moving. Try using these words.

Running and Jumping

Fast	Hopping
Slow	Leaping
High	Skipping
Low	Chasing
Jumping	Galloping

Tumbling, Rolling, Crawling, and Climbing

Over	Wiggling
Under	Slithering
Around	Somersaulting
Through	Sneaking
Up	Dangling
Down	Cart Wheeling

Rhythmic Movement and Balance

Dancing	Turning
Twisting	Bending
Marching	Stretching
Sliding	Slow
Shaking	Fast

Catching, Throwing, and Kicking

Overhand	Tossing
Underhand	Chasing
Bouncing	Throwing
Rolling	Dribbling
Catching	Kicking

Pretend Games and Imagination

Zoom like a plane
Run like a cheetah
Stretch like a cat
Strut like a rooster
Leap like a frog

Chase Me, Chase Me

2 or more players

Playfully chase your child safely throughout the yard, the playground, or the house. Outside, go uphill and downhill, zig and zag, fast and slow, and forward and backward. Hug upon capture!

Hula Hop

1 or more players

Equipment: 1 or more large plastic hoops

Lay hoops on the sidewalk, lawn, or floor and let child jump or hop in and out of them.

Creeping, Crawling, Climbing

1 or more players

Equipment: Large boxes, chairs, tables, sheets

Create an obstacle course with several objects your child can pass over, under, and through. Try it outside with lawn furniture and cardboard boxes of various sizes. Large cardboard boxes can be cut to create a tunnel, or just left open at both ends.

Freeze Dancing

2 or more players

Equipment: Music

Put on some music or make your own, and let your child dance. Explain to your child that when you stop the music, everyone freezes. Start dancing when the music comes on again. If you have a portable tape player or radio, play outside.

Read, Run and Race About

2 or more players

Equipment: Action storybook

Choose a favorite action story and encourage your child to copy the actions and expressions of the characters as you read the story out loud.
